Our school initiatives are on track to meet or exceed our targets

During 2016, we focused on maximising the benefits of this funding for our students. After reviewing our 2016 Investing for Success agreement, it is clear that we are on track to meet or exceed our targeted student outcomes. We continue to implement our initiatives to ensure that every student succeeds.

Initiatives implemented include:

- Employed a speech language pathologist (6 FTE)
- Sheena Cameron Reading Comprehension Strategies Workshops for parents and pre-prep parents.
- Year 3 students meeting NMS in reading comprehension - Year 3 students performed above NMB or above. 75% of Year 3s were in U2B for 4 out of 5 strands of NAPLAN.
- Year 5 students meeting NMS in reading comprehension - 85% of Year 5 met NMB for 5/5 strands of NAPLAN.
- Deployment of extra teacher aide time was engaged in an intensive intervention program. 25% of Year 1 students moved ten levels in PM Benchmarks during 2016. (Reading)
- Deployment of extra teacher aide time was engaged in an intensive intervention program. 83% of Year 2 achieved Regional benchmarks in reading
- Increase of 100% of teaching staff have taken up leadership roles within the school, being on a committee or chairing a committee.
- Items purchased have had a positive impact on student and staff outcomes.
